

Acts 10:1-23a

Sermon headings

God prompts Cornelius to send for Peter

God prompts Peter to go to Cornelius

Read Acts 10:1-8

1. In what ways is Cornelius an exemplary believer?
2. What is Cornelius lacking?
3. What does this tell us about those who are sincerely religious and do good things but are not Christians?
4. How can we prompt them to seek Jesus?

Read Acts 10:9-23

5. What was the purpose of Israel's food laws?
6. How does this vision challenge Peter's thinking as a Jewish believer?
7. In what way does God push Peter out of his comfort zone?

8. In what similar ways might God push us out of our comfort zones today?

9. How do you feel about this?

10. What encouragement can you draw from knowing that God is in sovereign control?

Take time to share prayer requests and pray about the things you have discussed.